MODULE 6 WORKSHEET

Shape Their Reality Perception Planner

Decisions are rarely driven by facts alone. Use this planner to decide how you will frame your message, set the first number and guide the choice, with integrity. It takes 20–30 minutes.

Negotiation I'm preparing for: _____ Date: _____

01 Loss frame

What do they stand to lose if they say no? Write only real losses.

STRATEGY	MY SENTENCE	REAL?
Reframing value Same fact, stronger frame ("90% fat-free")		☐ Yes
Opportunity cost What inaction loses		☐ Yes
Scarcity Limited availability or exclusive access		☐ Yes
Time-based urgency A real deadline		☐ Yes

02 Anchor plan

QUESTION	MY ANSWER
Market range for this deal
My first number (high if selling, low if buying, precise)
Data that makes it reasonable
If they anchor first, my counter-anchor

03 Fairness lines

Prepare one sentence for each move, in your own words.

MOVE	MY SENTENCE
Establish the baseline Market rates, standards, similar deals
Address unfairness "...seems low compared to... What would feel fair to you?"
Secure fair agreement A small adjustment for a prompt commitment
Invoke fairness identity Only a trait I genuinely see in them

04 Choice design

Turn a yes/no into a choice. Design two or three options that all work for me, and for them.

Option A
What it includes, and its price

Option B (the one I hope they choose)
What it includes, and its price

Option C
What it includes, and its price

My choice question (e.g. "Would you prefer to start this week or next?")

05 Calibrated question bank

Write the "Why" or yes/no question you might be tempted to ask, then rewrite it with "What" or "How".

INSTEAD OF…	I WILL ASK…

Ready to use: "What about this is important to you?" · "How can we solve this problem?" · "What are we trying to accomplish here?" · "How am I supposed to do that?"

06 Reciprocity plan

QUESTION	MY PLAN
What do they need right now? (advice, information, an introduction, a resource)
My first gesture: small, personal, genuine
When I will give it, and when I will ask

07 Integrity check

- [ ] Every loss, deadline and scarcity I mention is real.
- [ ] My anchor is backed by data I can explain.
- [ ] Each option I offer is genuinely good for them too.
- [ ] My questions are sincere, and my gestures expect nothing in return.
- [ ] I would be comfortable if they knew exactly how I prepared.

08 After-action review

Fill this in within 24 hours of the negotiation.

QUESTION	WHAT HAPPENED
Which loss frame did I use? How did they react?
Who set the first number? Where did we end up compared with it?
When did fairness come up? Did it help or hurt?
Which option did they choose, and why?
Which question opened up the conversation most?
Did I give first? What came back?
Did anything I said feel like a trick? What will I change?

Agreed next steps (what, who, by when):
